SACRED HEART NEWS & NOTES

A big thank you to all who are joining us for this celebration of my anniversary of ordination. Thanks to my family: my parents, Don and Mary Ann, my brother Steve and his family, Michelle, Michael and Katie, my sister, Lori. Thanks also to all of my aunts, uncles and cousins who are celebrating with us. Thanks to my friend and classmate, Fr. Tom Pettei, who is joining us from New York (Queens, actually!) Thanks to the members of Kantorei who are singing for the Mass Sunday and presenting the afternoon concert. Thanks to the parish staff and volunteers who have worked so hard to put on a lovely Mass and reception. Thanks to those who participated in the Eucharistic Adoration from Saturday night to Sunday morning for their special prayers for priests and for vocations. Thanks to those who have already sent greetings and to the parishioners from the parishes in which I have served.

Just this list reveals a truth – no priest is alone. There are those who suspect the life of a priest that may be lonely given that we do not marry and have families of our own. But I have found in every situation that the Lord has blessed me with a wonderful family and good friends. The support that I have had from my immediate and extended family has been one of the great blessings in my life. The collaboration of so many priests and laity helps me see how richly the Lord provides for the Church. I appreciate each and everyone of you and include you in my prayer.

When folks ask me about my 25 years as a priest I say, some days it is a surprise that time has passed so quickly and that at others it seems like I have been a priest forever – in a good way. I feel privileged to be called by the Lord to the priesthood. It definitely feels like this is how I am meant to serve the Lord. So, my deepest appreciation goes out to all who have shared my life and ministry.

This coming weekend, Deacon Andy Vogel will be ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral in Winona. I look forward to welcoming him into the fraternity of the presbyterate. Please pray for him this week as he makes his final preparations. The ordination is open to anyone who wishes to attend. The ordination will take place at 12 noon.

The parish staff will be participating in the Diocesan Ministry Days on Thursday and Friday.

St. Mary's School will end classes this week. Graduation of the 8th graders is on Wednesday evening. The staff has done a wonderful job in passing on the faith to our children and giving them an excellent academic education. Special note must be made of Mary Hawkins who completes her first year as principal. She has done a great job and I look forward to our collaboration in the coming years.

From the writings of St. John Chrysostom on the Eucharist:

Consider with what honor you have been honored, at what table you feast, that which the angels trembled to behold, and dare not gaze upon because of its flashing brightness. It is with this we are nourished, to this we are joined, made of one body and one flesh with Christ.

 Son of Joseph & Amy Louks

Welcome to our Faith Family.

Pope Benedict XVI declared this past year as the "Year for Priests." During the year, priests all over the world have reflected on their vocation and their ministry. This has been a wonderful experience for our priests. Several programs brought them together to reflect and pray.

The Diocese of Winona will celebrate the closing of the Year for Priests with the ordination of Deacon Andy Vogel to the priesthood on June 11. In addition, Bishop Quinn has authorized a special collection the weekend of June 12-13, to honor priests of the diocese. All proceeds from the collection will be given to the Pension Fund to assist retired priests in meeting their costs of living. This is your opportunity to express your gratitude to the priests who have served this parish over the years. The priests of the diocese will be most grateful for your support.

The Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." Lk 9: 28-134
